Critical Barriers

The Challenge

Four key obstacles were limiting Voyager Sopris' ability to deliver engaging, interactive learning experiences.

Critical Decision Point

The Turning Point

Voyager Sopris recognized that delivering engaging digital lessons required a single solution that could enable offline access, speed up heavy eBook delivery, and support interactive classroom displays. They chose a platform that could solve all three without disrupting teacher workflows.

Strategic Solution

The KITABOO Solution

Enterprise-grade capabilities engineered to eliminate each barrier.

Measurable Results

Quantified Business Impact

KITABOO has helped us considerably with our international customers. This gives them access to the products within moments compared to weeks for delivery of a physical product. KITABOO has been great to personalize the books with the various options to make them exciting for the viewer, instead of “read only”

KITABOO has been instrumental in helping us achieve our business goals by enabling a rapid market entry for our product. It was the only e-reader solution that could fully meet our demanding requirements. Furthermore, the opportunity to collaborate closely with the KITABOO development team to customize the reader has proven invaluable. We particularly appreciate KITABOO's ability to deliver accessible books in both Fixed and Reflowable formats to our customers. We also highly value the KITABOO team's proactive approach and dedication to meeting and exceeding accessibility standards.
